RAO BAHADUR N. RAMANUJA AIYANGAR (Commissioner of Police): No, not at all. It is impossible for the Commissioner to do that.

MR. E. V. KRISHNA PILLAI (Pattanamtitta): May I know whether, even in regard to allegations of a definite character against his subordinates, the Commissioner may depute some of his subordinates to attend to them?

RAO BAHADUR N. RAMANUJA AIYANGAR (Commissioner of Police): Yes. There are various grades of officers. There are the District Superintendents and the Assistant Superintendents. When a matter is really of a very serious kind which requires the attention of the Commissioner, he will certainly consider it.

MR. E. V. KRISHNA PILLAI (Pattanamtitta): May I know whether, when considering such complaints, the status and position of the complainants in society will also be considered?

RAO BAHADUR N RAMANUJA AIYANGAR (Commissioner of Police): Any complainant is entitled to have an enquiry irrespective of status.

MR. E. V. KRISHNA PILLAI (Pattanamtitta): May I take it that the member does not make any distinction in regard to the status and position of the complainants?

RAO BAHADUR N. RAMANUJA AIYANGAR (Commissioner of Police): As far as the complaint itself is concerned, there is not much difference. A poor man is as good as a rich man in the eye of the law.
